As per the current policy of railway travel concession, male senior citizen of the age of 60 years and above, women senior citizen of the age of 58 and above are granted 40% and 50% concession respectively in all classes of Mail/Express/ Rajdhani/ Shatabdi etc, trains. No proof of age is required at the time of purchasing tickets, however, during journey the senior citizen is required to carry prescribed documentary proof issued by any Government agency showing their age or date of birth. Whenever any passenger is found travelling in the train on the berths booked under Senior Citizen “Quota” by declaration of wrong age depriving the genuine eligible passengers he/she should be treated as travelling without ticket and charged accordingly. This is a case where he is misusing both “concession” as well as “Quota”. This penalty is suggested as the person is not only cheating on fare part but is also getting a confirmed lower berth on false declaration depriving the eligible passengers of a confirmed lower berth. Whenever any passenger is found travelling in the train by declaration of wrong age so as to get senior citizen “Concession” only, they should be charged penalty in addition to difference of fare.(between full fare and concessional fare)

Misuse of Military Warrant (Ref.- CC-63 Dt. 28.11.2016)

Instances of misuse of Military Warrant have been brought to the notice of Railways, where some civilians were found travelling o-n the authority of military warrant. Accordingly, the matter has been reviewed and it has been decided that passengers booked o-n a military warrant should carry their Original Identity Cards issued by the Defence departments during their journey.

Similarly, the family members of the defence officials booked and travelling o-n warrant should carry their Medical Card or Family Identity Card issued by Ministry of Defence failing which they will be considered as travelling without ticket and charged accordingly.

Letter no. 2013/TG-I/20/P/PRS Ticket/Pt. (Board clarification about

Zonal railway may permit booking of ticket even after 30 minutes before scheduled departure of train up to a time which can be decided by the railway keeping in view the distance between the charting location and the platform. It may, however , be ensured that second/final charts are invariably taken out and should reach the on-board ticket checking staff at least 5 minutes before scheduled departure of train. In case no transaction take place between first and second charts, a nil report should reach the on-board ticket checking staff.

The ticket checking staff are confirming the RAC passengers when the berths falling vacant due to getting down of passengers en-route. But due to new system these berths are also being allotted through internet and the on-board staff are not aware of this due to non receipt of supplementary charts.

After preparation of second reservation charts, on-board ticket checking staff can allot the vacant accommodation only up to the next remote location to the passengers holding tickets up to that point. They can also allot vacant accommodation becoming available on account of non-turning up of passengers in the train.

ISSUE OF DUPLICATE TICKET FROM THE STATION (AS ON 1.5.07)

(1) (i) If the reservation status of the lost, misplaced, torn or mutilated ticket is reserved or RAC and duplicate ticket is sought before preparation of reservation chart, the station master shall issue a duplicate ticket in lieu of the original ticket on collection of the clerkage charge per passenger. (ii) If duplicate ticket in lieu of a lost or misplaced reserved ticket is sought after preparation of reservation chart, it shall be issued on collection of 50% of total fare. Duplicate tickets shall not be issued for RAC tickets after preparation of reservation chart. (iii) If duplicate ticket in lieu of a torn or mutilated reserved or RAC ticket is sought after preparation of reservation chart, it shall be issued on collection of 25% of the total fare. (2) (i) No refund shall be granted in respect of charges collected for issuing duplicate tickets except where the lost or misplaced ticket is traced after the issuance of a duplicate ticket and presented alongwith the duplicate ticket before departure of the train. The charges collected for issuing duplicate ticket shall be refunded after deducting five per cent. thereof subject to a minimum deduction of rupees twenty. In case the journey is also not undertaken, the cancellation charges on the original ticket shall be determined as provided under Refund rules. (ii) The passenger, who has paid excess charges in train on account of his reserved ticket or RAC ticket being lost, misplaced, torn or mutilated, can make an application to Chief Commercial Manager (Refunds) of that Railway administration for grant of refund of the charges paid in train, who may, if decided, grant refund of the charges realised in the train after retaining the cancellation charges at 50% of fare per passenger provided that no one has taken refund earlier on the original ticket.

ISSUE OF DUPLICATE TICKET IN TRAIN

As per extant instructions, persons found travelling without proper authority are treated as travelling without ticket and are charged fare along with penalty as per the extant rule. This provision is also applicable to passengers who have confirmed reservation but are unable to produce the authority for travel including tickets either on account of being lost or misplaced. As per rly board letter no. 96/ticket checking/12/4 Dt. 30.08.1996, the matter has been reviewed by the board and it has been decided that in respect of those passengers whose names are appearing in the chart having confirmed/RAC reservation and are unable to produce travel authority/tickets, they should be charged full fare including reservation charges without realising penalty. The appearance of their name in reservation charts should be treated as permission to travel by the authorised railway servant. The ticket checking staff should, however, exercised care and caution while verifying the genuineness of such passengers and preparing the tickets and ensure that full particulars of the passengers are mentioned in the EFT.

Checking of tickets during Night Time in Reserved Coaches. CC No. 11 of 2017

Checking staff should be suitably instructed that tickets in reserved coaches should normally be checked between 0600 hours and 2200 hours. In case of reserved passengers tickets should be checked initially after passengers board the trains to begin their journey. Bonafide reserved passengers whose tickets have already been examined and verified should not be disturbed between 2200 hours and 0600 hours without a valid reason. However, since the overall responsibility of not permitting any unauthorized passenger in the coach lies with the ticket checking staff, if any unauthorised passenger is found in the coach, this provision cannot be taken as a plea for the same. Checks can also be made between 2200 hours and 0600 hours in the following circumstances:-

- a) In case where train departs from originating station on or after 2200 hours; .
- b) the passengers who have to perform their journey between 2200 hours and 0600 hours;
- c) where tickets have not been checked after boarding.

However, care should be taken by the ticket checking staff that the passengers are not be unduly disturbed during the night time.

Reserved coaches can also be checked between 2200 hours and 0600 hours in case Vigilance Department have any doubt/have sourced information about some suspicious activity/unauthorized carrying of passengers. It may, however, be ensured that it should be done with the least inconvenience to the passengers
