

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA (भारत सरकार)
MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (रेल मंत्रालय)
RAILWAY BOARD (रेलवे बोर्ड)

No. 97/TG-III/ 600/12 Pt.III

New Delhi, dt. 19.06.2001

The General Manager (Catering)
All Indian Railways.

COMMERCIAL CIRCULAR NO. 38 OF 2001
(Correction slip no.1 to the Commercial Circular 58 of 2000)

Sub: New Catering policy
Ref: Board's letter No.97/TG.III/600/12. Dated: 20.10.2000.

The following corrections may be incorporated in the new catering policy dated: 20.10.2000.

Correction No.1: Following new sub - para 6.2.(viii) which has already been communicated vide Board's letter No.97/TG.III/600/12 dated: 25.4.2001 may be incorporated in the new catering policy.

"In case of an increase in the frequency of train services and/or extension of trains the existing licensee should manage services on additional trip(s) and /or on extended portion Railway will correspondingly increase the licensee fee in such cases."

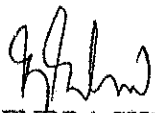

Correction No. 2: In Para 15.2(vi), the words:

*as applicable from State to State for various minorities may be substituted with
* the term minorities will include the communities, namely 1. Muslims 2. Christians 3. Sikhs 4. Buddhists 5. Zoroastrians (Parsis)

Correction No. 3: Following new sub-para below the footnote of Para 15.2 should be incorporated:

"For the purpose of allotment of catering units under reserved category mentioned herein above, the eligibility criteria as laid down in Para 15.1(a) to (c) shall be deemed to be desirable criteria and not an essential qualification. The candidates belonging to this category will be required to satisfy the competent authority that they have the necessary resources to set up and run the stall. In addition to the aforesaid, the applicant will produce a certificate from the appropriate authority regarding their status falling in reserved category."

This issues with the concurrence of Legal and Finance Directorates of Railway Board.

(YOGENDRA SHARMA)
DIRECTOR/CATERING
RAILWAY BOARD

No. 97/TG-III/ 600/12 Pt.III

New Delhi, dt. 19.06.2001.

Copy to FA&CAO, All Indian Railways for information and necessary action.

For Financial Commissioner/ Railways